

Discovery & Research

Competitors have similar overall structure, features, and services provided.

There is some nuance on content & labeling.

Opportunity to shake up the market with a new approach.

[illegible]

Client Jobs to Be Done

SCENE In order to _____,	JOB a client must _____,	TASK which they do by _____.
Identify a property to make an offer on	Identify listings that match their criteria	• Browsing listings online • Receiving listings from their agent that match search criteria • Expanding/refining search criteria
	Determine which homes they want to see (narrowing choices)	• Saving homes, bookmarking/favs • Reviewing listings with agent and co-buyers • Giving their agent feedback, telling agent what they like and don't like • Sharing listings with co-buyers • Visiting neighborhoods • Prioritizing what matters most about the home (not 1:1 with search) • Understanding home intangibles/amenities • Asking agent questions about homes, neighborhoods, process, etc.
	View homes	• Scheduling viewings with their agent • Preparing documents to view home (if needed) • Developing a checklist of things to look for and questions to ask at open houses • Participating in home tours • Attending open houses
	Evaluate the homes they visited	• Recording and organizing their thoughts about visited homes for future reference or consideration • Taking pictures and videos for later • Taking notes for later • Giving feedback to their agent • Giving feedback to co-buyers • Seeking advice from friends/family
	Adjust their search criteria and/or strategy	• Revising search criteria and preferences based on visits • Revisiting their budget • Pausing their home search • Changing agents
	Determine whether to make an offer on a viewed home	• Comparing prices on similar homes • Understanding external interest in the home and/or other offers • Reviewing offer market conditions • Knowing what is considered to be a competitive offer • Revisiting budget
	Make an offer	• Giving the green light to their real estate agent • Preparing documents necessary to make an immediate offer • Understanding how quickly the home will sell, how much time buyer has to make offer • Looping in other advisors (e.g., parents) • Submitting pre-approval, proof of funds, other forms (PEAD) • Scheduling pre-inspection • Looping-in/giving heads-up to real estate lawyer • Writing personalized letter to seller • Writing earnest money check • Doing due diligence check • Understanding fees and what comes next • Seeking pep talk from agent (if scared of making an offer)
	Adjust their strategy (if offer is rejected)	• Re-evaluating strategy and/or agent • Seeking pep talk from agent (if they want to quit) • Following status to see if home falls out of offer/escrow and comes back on market

Profile	More ...	#Lts
	☒	5
	☒	5
		5
☒		5
☒		4
☒		4
		5
	☒	5
☒		4